MAY COMPEL PAYMENT OF BACK TAXES BY SEARS ESTATE

If Cook county had in past years gotten from Richard W. Sears the taxes it feels it should have gotten there would not be so many overcrowded school houses today, for a few million dollars would build a lot of extra school houses.

But, though Sears is dead, his estate may have to cough up the back taxes on $12,856,766 of personal property. The question is now under advisement by the board of review.

Lake county compelled from the Sears estate the payment of back taxes on this bunch of personal property since 1912, when Sears legally moved to Lake county. If the board of review makes the Sears estate pay taxes Sears neglected to pay when alive the sum may run into millions. Sears was only paying on $60,000 worth of property.
